

Financial Services Guide (FSG)

General insurance

Issued 16 October 2017

What's an FSG?

Good question. An FSG is short for a Financial Services Guide. Basically, it gives you important information about a particular financial product or service. While ING offers many financial products and services this FSG is about general insurance.

This FSG is provided by ING a business name of ING Bank (Australia) Limited ABN 24 000 893 292 (ING Bank), which is a member of the ING Group of companies, and Auto & General Services Pty Ltd ACN 003 617 909 (AGS) (ING and together with AGS, we/our).

So, why should I read this FSG?

It gives you important information to help you decide whether you wish to buy an ING general insurance product.

It explains:

- the services and products we're authorised to provide to you;
- how we are remunerated;
- potential conflicts of interest we may have; and
- our internal and external dispute resolution procedures and how you can access them.

Before purchasing an insurance product, you will be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) for you to read and consider. The PDS contains information about the product to help you make an informed decision about whether or not to buy the product.

What are our services and authorisations?

ING acts as an Authorised Representative of AGS under a written agreement. ING can provide you with factual information and general financial advice about, and arrange for the issue of general insurance products as an Authorised Representative of AGS. When ING arranges for the issue of your insurance, it acts on behalf of AGS and not on your behalf. AGS is responsible for the conduct of ING under this agreement.

AGS is an Australian Financial Services Licensee (AFSL 241411), and is licensed to deal in, and provide financial advice on general insurance products. AGS acts under a binding authority authorizing it to arrange and administer the insurance on behalf of the insurer, Auto & General Insurance Company Limited (AFSL 285571). AGS is a related company of the insurer. When arranging and administering the policy, AGS acts on behalf of the insurer and not on your behalf. Any general financial advice about general insurance given by ING or AGS is given for your benefit.

How are we paid?

ING and AGS are entitled to a commission calculated as a percentage of the premium you pay (excluding taxes and charges for the insurance product). All commissions are included in the cost of the insurance product.

ING receive remuneration from AGS when they arrange for you to buy the insurance product and when your insurance is renewed. The remuneration varies depending upon the product, but is up to 30% of the premium (excluding taxes and statutory charges) plus GST. ING's remuneration is included in the premium quote. AGS receives a remuneration of up to 32% of the premium whenever a policy is issued to a customer introduced to it by ING.

AGS's staff are paid a salary and may receive bonuses based on performance.

Fees (inclusive of GST) that you could incur once you have purchased insurance through AGS are:
